Protecting Maryland's Eastern Shore

Less than an hour's drive from Baltimore on Maryland's Eastern Shore, a capstone 76-acre acquisition for the Conquest Waterfront Preserve, a 758-acre waterfront park in Queen Anne's County was completed in partnership with the state, county and the Conservation Fund. Situated on a peninsula with 5 miles of shoreline defined by the Chester and Corsica Rivers, the area will preserve important waterfowl habitat and wetland areas. Public access to the bay will offer hiking, bird watching and nature study.

"The partnerships that were established to ensure the success of this project can be used as a template for other jurisdictions that are interested in preserving important ecological and cultural properties such as Conquest."
